CONTEMPLATION

Features
Marbles are being used in many of today’s kitchens and baths—a modern use of a classic material. And thanks to its pattern and textures, Contemplation is very modern. The combination of textured, etched and smooth surfaces makes this product extremely on-trend. It’s wonderful on backsplashes and as an accent on floors.

Features

Let your mind wander through the possibilities of design with the versatile collection of “Mixed Up” mosaics. An array of stone and glass blends in three sizes as well as an assortment of stone, glass, and metal mosaics in random widths and lengths. Options include marble, travertine, slate and stone blends all mixed with various colors of stainless steel and brushed aluminum. These blends create spectacular optical effects, and any of them will beautifully turn a tile setting into a custom work of art. It’s a luxurious designer look!

- Stone and glass blends: 11 color pallets in 3 mosaic sizes: 5/8” x 5/8” Mosaic, 1” x 1” mosaic, and random linear mosaic (narrow rectangles of varying lengths)
- Stone, glass, and metal blends: 5 color palettes in random widths and lengths mixed together

Colors

Glass and Tumbled Stone (travertine and marble):
- 100 Snow Peak—Winter-white marble, with crystal and frosted glass in the palest greys; overall effect is very light
- 200 Dune—Tumbled travertine in washed sandy tones, glass accents in beiges; overall effect is sandy neutral
- 270 River Bed—Emperor dark marble with touches of crystalline veining, classic travertine in earthy beiges, glass in rich beiges and browns; overall effect is balanced with mix of darks and lights
- 700 Dakota—Emperor dark marble in deep browns and ebony, with rich taupe veins; glass in deep beige to medium-brown; overall effect is dark neutral

Glass and Slate
- 200 Denali—Glass in sandy beiges, stone in medium greys with rust veining; overall effect is medium neutral
- 230 Spring Valley—Glass in cream, olive, and grey; stone in greys with rust veining; overall effect is balanced with mix of darks and lights
- 500 Pikes Peak—Glass in very pale and medium grey, stone in grey with caramel veining; overall effect is balanced with mix of darks and lights
